

Hi NAMS Families, this is Jon Dilbone and we are down to the final week of school and I just want to provide some information about what is happening.

The Albany Boys & Girls club afterschool program ended today, June 9 and their summer program will begin on June 26.

So the last week at NAMS is a busy week.

- Monday is a normal school day.
- Tuesday is normal except the 8th graders will be going to the Kroc Center.
- Wednesday is a regular schedule, not an early release and the 8th graders have promotion practice.
- Thursday is our awards day
  - 6th grade awards are at 8 am
  - 7th grade awards are at 10 am
  - AOS awards are at 1:30 pm
  - Locker clean out will happen at 2:20 pm
  - 8th grade Promotion at 7 pm – we have limited seating so please limit then number of guests to 4 per student if possible.
- Friday is our last day and students are released at 10:50 am.

Thanks for sharing your students with us this year. We look forward see the students who return to NAMS next year and wish those going on to high school great success!

Thanks for listening and the transcript of this call is posted on our website. Click on announcements at the top of the page, then on the school messenger calls and finally select the date and language you would like.

Have a great weekend and get ready to enjoy the summer!
